SATURDAY, OCTOBER 19, 1745. [No. 131.]

To JEFFREY BROADBOTTOM, Esq;

SIR;

THAT it is the Duty, and true Intereſt, of every Man, who is a good Proteſtant, Chriſtian, or Subject, at this Time to uſe all his Power to oppoſe and puniſh thoſe who are concern'd in the preſent unnatural Rebellion, the preſent glorious Spirit, which is riſen among the People in every County of South Britain, abundantly teſtifies. We draw our Pens, our Purſes, our Swords, in Defence of our Religion, Laws, and Liberty; and the Clergy cry aloud and ſpare not. On this Theme they cannot want Arguments or Attention, and tho' this is a trite Subject, yet it ought conſtantly to be inculcated into the common People, and kept warm by all Means poſſible; and it were to be wiſhed, that this Method of preaching at Popery had been practiſed more frequently than it hath been for many Years paſt, hardly have we heard any Doctrine of this Kind from the Pulpits ſince the Revolution; it was become a ſtale worn Topic, and much below the Genius of a very learned and eloquent Dignitary: The People who heard little or nothing againſt the Romiſh Religion, when they were at Church, began by Degrees to cool in their Zeal againſt the Superſtition and Idolatry of that Church; they ſaw their Neighbours the Catholics, both Gentlemen and others, behaving with Decency, and, with particular Care, avoiding Debates in the controverſial Points of Religion; they did not give themſelves the Trouble to look about them and ſee how thick they were planted around; and if they had private Chappels for their own Houſes, and Prieſts to officiate in them, they ſaw no Harm in it, let them go to Heaven their own Way; they had not Penetration enough to underſtand the Force and Utility of the many Laws enacted againſt thoſe of this Religion, who muſt be profeſs'd Enemies to Proteſtants or they cannot be deemed good Catholics, who are obliged to uſe all Methods to extirpate the Northern Hereſy, as they call the Proteſtant Religion, on the Pain of eternal Damnation.

I am not ignorant there have been ſome other Reaſons to which the Lenity of the Government, I may ſay, the Indulgence of it to thoſe Gentlemen was owing, during the Power of a late Miniſter, and the Catholics gave him in Return their whole Votes and Intereſt (no inconſiderable Preſent) as it tended to carry on his grand Scheme of Corruption, and as the Catholics ſaw, and knew very well, (and, therefore, abſolved themſelves for their giving him their Intereſt,) that this Scheme of the Miniſter's, muſt, in a ſmall Time, break our Morals, and diſſolve our Conſtitution.

By theſe Means we may account for the Slackneſs and Inexecution of our Laws, a late Years, againſt Popery; to this too it is owing, that when we talk to the common People of the many Maſſacres, and the Murder of a whole innocent People, purely on Account of their being Proteſtants, and that the Catholics look upon theſe bloody Sacrifices as pleaſing Hecatombs to the all merciful God; I ſay, when one recounts theſe Things to the Vulgar, they appear to them as Romances, or bloody Stories that might or might not happen ſomewhere at ſome Time, or a great Way off, nor can they conceive that any Wretches who call themſelves Chriſtians can impiouſly and blaſphemouſly believe they do God Service, by coolly embruing their Hands in the Blood of their Fellow-Creatures. I remember formerly, to have ſeen a huge Volume, called The Book of Martyrs, being a Hiſtory of thoſe who were burnt in Smithfield in the Reign of Queen Mary, becauſe they would not renounce the Proteſtant Religion; this Book, I ſay, ſome Years ago, was almoſt in every Church chained to a Deſk, to be peruſed by every one at their leiſure, and this was no ill Way or Method of keeping alive in their Memory thoſe irreligious Bonfires, and of rooting in them an Antipathy to ſuch Doctrines and Practiſes: I wonder this Book is not now continued to be fix'd in Churches as formerly, but I take the Reaſon to be that this was look'd upon as an old unfaſhionable Trick, and tho' it might be of ſome Weight in Queen Elizabeth's Days to terrify the common People, it could be in theſe Days of no Manner of Uſe.

Well, Sir, God be thanked, we are at laſt awakened; the whole Nation is in Arms, and are become thoroughly ſenſible how dear, of what ineſtimable Value their Religion, their Property, and their Liberty are to them; and for their Audacity. [illegible] rebellious Fools will ſoon ſuffer

Now, Sir, all I mean by this plain Lay Preachment is to perſuade us, when this troubleſome Affair is over, not entirely to lay aſide, with our Danger, our Zeal and Watchfulneſs, to look ſtill abroad, and be thankful for the imminent Danger we have eſcap'd, for ſurely we cannot imagine that this Deputy Pretender undertook this Enterprize without the ſtrongeſt Aſſurances of Support from France; which, perhaps, has been prevented at this Time by our Fleets ſo carefully guarding our Coaſts; or perhaps France has, like us, been too much exhauſted, by her Enterprizes on the Continent: Indeed, conſidering the ill Succeſs of our Arms on the Continent this Campaign, if theſe had not been the Reaſons that prevented them, they moſt certainly would have ſupported this Invaſion; and, indeed, had they thrown in Ten Thouſand Men in Time, we may tremble to think what would have been the Conſequence: France would ſoon have ſeen all the Weſtern World her own, and the deep-laid Schemes of Richlieu and Mazarine had, at laſt, taken their full Effect.

Yours,

ANGLIGENUS.

COUNTRY NEWS.

Briſtol, October 12. Yeſterday the Right Worſhipful William Barnes, Eſq; Mayor, Mr. Juſtice Forſter, Recorder, and the Worſhipful the Aldermen, together with the reſt of the Corporation of this City, attended by a great Number of the principal Inhabitants, aſſembled at the Guildhall, when his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle's Letter was publickly read, authorizing the Magiſtrates (as from his Majeſty) to call the City to Arms, and to martial them into Troops or Companies, at their Diſcretion; as alſo for them to appoint proper Officers to the reſpective Corps; his Majeſty being highly pleaſed with the Zeal and Unanimity of ſo conſiderable a Branch of his Subjects, and with the Loyalty which they profeſs for his Perſon and Government. After this was read, an Aſſociation was enter'd into for the Support of the Comman Cauſe, when the Mayor ſubſcribed 10,000 l. in the Name of the Chamber, and the Maſter of the Society and Company of Merchants, 5000 l. in the Name of the whole Society; which was followed by a generous Subſcription of the whole Bench of Magiſtrates, ſome of whom ſubſcribed 500 l. and others 300, 200, and 100 l. This generous and loyal Spirit was ſeconded by many of the Gentlemen and Merchants preſent in the Hall; ſome of whom alſo ſubſcribed 500, 200, and 100 l. for the ſame laudable and loyal Purpoſe, and continued ſo doing 'till Five o'Clock. By the Spirit that appears at preſent among us, we may be bold to ſay, not a City in England is more firmly attached to his Majeſty's Perſon and Government than that of Briſtol, which, 'tis believed, will raiſe near 100,000 l. the firſt Stroke, for the Support of the Common Cauſe. But above all, there appears an uncommon Ardour among the People to martial themſelves into Companies, and to learn the Art of War.

'Tis ſaid, that 40,000 l. will be ſubſcrib'd by one particular Body of Men in this City.

Norwich, October 12. Laſt Saturday a Man who has gone by the Names of Jeremiah Pratt, John Wilſon, Thomas Rayner, Mad Tom, Weaſel, and owns he has gone by 20 different Names, was apprehended near Lakenham, after making an obſtinate Reſiſtance, and preſenting a Piſtol loaded with a Brace of Bullets, and threatning to ſhoot any that came nigh him; but being overcome by the Number of Purſuers, two of whom had Guns loaded, and threatened to ſhoot him if he did not deliver his Piſtol, and ſurrender, which he ſubmitted to, and was committed; and on Monday laſt confeſſed that he ſtole Dr. Layman's [illegible] of Diſs, and has owned the ſtealing ſeveral others, [illegible] Smuggling, and that [illegible] the Norwich and Yarmouth [illegible] him.

Laſt Wedneſday one Nicholas Spencer, a Carpenter, who was committed to Jail, for violently aſſaulting his Wife with his Hammer, and was near killing her, hang'd himſelf.

LONDON.

Whitehall, October 12. By Letters from Berwick, of the 7th Inſtant, there is Advice, that upon the 4th the Gariſon of the Caſtle of Edinburgh, under Favour of a great Fire of their Cannon from the Half-Moon, made a Trench croſs the Caſtle-Hill, half way between the Gate and the Houſes, 14 Feet broad, and 16 deep, and from the Parapet, made by the Earth dug out of the Trench on the Side near the Caſtle, with the Fire of 200 Men of the Garriſon, cleared the Street. Upon the 5th, by the Help of the Town's People, they obtained 20 Black Cattle, a Quantity of Bread and Ale, and Water from the Reſervoir. About Five that Evening, a conſiderable Detachment of the Rebels marched up to the Caſtle-Hill, to attack the Party of the Garriſon in the Trench, who retreated into the Caſtle upon their Approach without loſing a Man; the Rebels in creeping up the South Side of the Hill, had 20 of their Men kill'd by the Cannon from the Caſtle. About Nine the ſame Night, between 4 and 5000 of them marched into the Town from their Camp, and remained in it all Night, but none of them durſt appear within the Reach of the Cannon. They were employing all the Farriers about the Town to ſhoe their Horſes, and gave out that they intended to march upon the 8th towards Berwick, with 9000 Men. On Friday Glenbuket and Lord Ogilvy joined them with a Reinforcement of 700 Men. They will not ſuffer any Proviſions to be carried out to the Fox Man of War, lying in the Road of Leith; and the Captain of that Ship has taken Care to prevent any Veſſel croſſing the Firth. They had order'd the Landlords of all the Houſes of Edinburgh to pay in Half a Crown in the Pound of all their Rents as upon the 7th, on Pain of Military Execution. Several People had been robbed by them on the Highway; and they had pillaged all the Country round about.

Whitehall, October 15. By Letters of the 8th Inſt. from Edinburgh, there is Advice that the Pretender's Son having, upon the 24, publiſhed an Order for preventing all Communication between the Caſtle and the Town, upon Pain of Death; and great Numbers of the Rebels having for that Purpoſe been placed in the Houſes near the Caſtle, General Gueſt had been oblig'd not only to fire upon them, but to march out, and burn them to the Ground: That thereupon another Order for reſtoring the Communication was, upon the 5th, paſted up at the ſeveral Gates of the Town; and that ever ſince the Garriſon had been plentifully ſupplied with every Thing they wanted. Advice from Dalkeith, of the 9th, make mention, that Billets had been demanded of that Town for 500 Men, who, it was given out, were to march in that Day from Aberdeenſhire; that, at Six at Night, 150 of the ſaid Number did accordingly come in, all well mounted; That 100 Horſes had been demanded of the Duke of Buccleugh's Chamberlain, for the Tueſday Morning after: That the like Orders had been ſent to the Bailiffs of that Town, who had cauſed Notice thereof to be given to the Towns People; and that it was ſaid, that the Town of Leith had alſo received Notice to provide a large Number of Horſes and Carts, which were to be ready againſt the ſame Day. Other Letters from Scotland give an Account, that the 700 Men, who joined the Rebels on the 4th, under the Command of Glenbucket, were review'd upon the 7th, in the Afternoon at Leith Links: That Orders had been iſſued for 20,000 lb. Weight of Biſcuit to be ready by the 12th: That their Intentions were kept very ſecret, That they had ſeized ſeveral Horſes in Edinburgh, and the adjacent County, and had loſt ſeveral Men by Deſertion. As they were diſperſed in and about the Town, their Numbers cannot be aſcertained. Great Number of the Inhabitants had retired.

Letters of the 12th Inſtant, juſt arrived from Berwick, bring Word, that the Rebels ſtill continue in and about Edinburgh; but gave out, that they intended to march Southward as this Day.

Admiralty-Office, October 15.

Extract of a Letter from Rear-Admiral Warren, dated at Louisbourg, July 25, 1745.

On the 18th Inſtant, one of the Colony Cruizers brought in a large French Schooner from Quebec, laden with Flower and other Proviſions. On the 22d, a large Ship appeared in the Offing, which I took to be a 60 Gun Ship; and the next Morning, at Day-light, I ſent out the Princeſs Mary and Canterbury; and had the Pleaſure to ſee them from the Ramparts take her without Oppoſition. She [illegible] 500 or 600 Tons, [illegible] and 99 Men, commanded by M. Nouvel de la Contria, who aſſures us, that ſhe is (except Mr. Anſon's) as good a Prize as has been taken this War.

Extract of a Letter from Rear-Admiral Warren, dated Auguſt 1, 1745.

The Cheſter and Mermaid have brought in here the Heron, a French Eaſt India Ship, from Bengal, pretty rich. By her we learn, that the Triton is on her Paſſage, and that this is the appointed Rendezvous for their India Trade; therefore it is hoped, more of them will fall into our Hands.

Extract of a Letter from Rear-Admiral Warren, dated Auguſt 8, 1745.

On the 2d Inſtant the Sunderland and Cheſter brought in a French Ship, called the Notre de Dame de la Deliverance, Capt. Pierre Litant, of 22 Guns, and about 69 Men, from Lima in the South ſeas, for which Place ſhe ſailed from Cadiz in the Year 1741. She has on board, in Gold and Silver, upwards of 300,000 l. Sterl. and a Cargo of Cocoa, Peruvian Wooll, and Jeſuits Bark. She came from Lima with two others, each of them much richer than this; and near the Banks of Newfoundland they met with two Ships, which took the other South-ſea Men, while this, with Difficulty, eſcaped. They belonged to St. Malo, and there are two more in the South ſeas; one was coming home with thoſe taken, but ſprung a Leak before they came round Cape Horn, and put back: The other is to come home next Year.

The Troops of Sweden, taken into Britiſh Pay, will be very ſoon put into a Condition of embarking; and, as the Paſſage is very ſhort, and the North Highlands very well affected to his Majeſty's Service, there ſeems to be no Reaſon to doubt, that the Rebels will very ſoon be made ſenſible of the Raſhneſs and Temerity, as well as the Ingratitude and Iniquity, of their Undertaking.

By the laſt Advices from Copenhagen the French Miniſter began to loſe Ground daily; and ſome Propoſitions made to that Crown on the Part of Sweden, for a Convention among the Northern Powers, for maintaining the Peace and Independency of the German Empire, are ſaid to be ſo well reliſhed, that there is Reaſon to hope a Negociation will be ſpeedily begun, in order to ripen them into an Alliance.

Some private Letters from Francfort intimate, that, ſince the Action in Bohemia, their Imperial Majeſties appear inclined to accede to the Treaty propoſed in Favour of Pruſſia; and that a Miniſter has been diſpatch'd, with proper Inſtructions on that Subject, to Dreſden.

Private Letters from Francfort ſay, that Orders came from Verſailles to the Prince of Conti on the 15th Inſt. N.S. directing him to make the beſt Proviſion poſſible for the Convenience and Security of his Army, it being his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty's Pleaſure, that the Troops ſhould keep the Field this Winter, in order to be employed as Occaſion require; which was attended with much Clamour and Diſcontent.

The Spaniards broke Ground before Alexandria on the 1ſt Inſtant, N. S. and employ about 60 Pieces of Cannon in the Siege; but as the Place is very ſtrong, both by natural Situation, and by the Pains that has been taken in fortifying it, there is good Reaſon to hope it will hold out, till the Arrival of the Auſtrian Succours puts into the Power of his Sardinian Majeſty to relieve it.

By private Letters from the Hague, there is no Sort of Appearance of Congreſs there, as was expected, for redreſſing the Grievance and Troubles in Germany; nor is it believed, that the States General will ſhew any Regard to the Propoſition made by the Abbe de la Ville, that they would draw up themſelves the Articles of Preliminaries neceſſary to be adjuſted, before ſuch an Aſſembly could meet.

Letters from the Auſtrian Head Quarters at Ertina, dated October 2, ſay, that the Huſſars had a Fair the Day before for the Sale of the Goods which they acquired in their Expedition of the 30th, at which all went off, but not at very extravagant Prices. Gold Watches for two or three Ducats, an ordinary Horſe for two or three Florins, the beſt for five, Silver Laced Waiſtcoats for a Florin a-piece, and other Things in Proportion.

The Troops in Bavaria, and ſome that were cantoned in Auſtria, have Orders to repair to the Rhine, that they might replace the 10,000 Men, that under the Command of Lieutenant-General Count de Grune, are to march into Bohemia; ſo that the Imperial Army will not be at all weakned.

Utrecht, that the States of that Province have reſolved to raiſe 500,000 Guilders for the public Service, by a Lottery, a la Tontine, and 200,000 Guilders more by Annuities, after the Rate of 3 per Cent.

According to various private Letters from Petersbourg, her Imperial Majeſty has aſſigned the Count de Woronzoff, her Vice-Chancellor, 15,000 Rubles for the Expence of his Journey. He is firſt to go to Berlin, from thence to the Hague, and ſo to Paris; it is generally believed, that he has Inſtructions to preſs the Mediation of the Czarina, his Miſtreſs, at all theſe Courts, to facilitate a general Peace.

We learn from Naples, that the Bey of Tripoli has lately ſent the King of the Two Sicilies a Preſent, conſiſting of three Tygers, ſome Barbary Sheep, ſeveral Oſtriches, Eagles, and other Birds, and two very fine Horſes. We learn likewiſe from the ſame Place, that the French Ambaſſador, who was far enough from being agreeable there, is recall'd, and will very ſpeedily ſet out for Paris.

The Sheerneſs Privateer, Capt. Richardſon, return'd to Briſtol the 15th Inſtant, from a Cruize, having loſt all her Maſts in a Gale of Wind, on the 6th Inſtant: She ſpoke with the Alexander Privateer of Briſtol on the 4th, and all were well. The Sheerneſs has retaken the Sarah, ——, from Oporto, belonging to Ramſgate, but parted from her in the Storm.

Within theſe two Days upwards of 60 Perſons have voluntarily entered themſelves into the Foot-Guards.

Thurſday his Majeſty went to the Houſe of Peers with the uſual State, and opened the Seſſions of Parliament with a moſt gracious Speech from the Throne.

General Honeywood is gone down to Portſmouth, he being Governor of that important Fortreſs.

There is Advice from the Weſt-Indies, that a French Ship from Martinico, bound for Nantz, is taken in her Paſſage, and carried into New England.

Extract of a Letter from Merazion, in Mountsbay, dated October 15.

"Yeſterday came into this Bay the Lardayde Schooner, Louis Guignet, late Commander, bound from Breſt for the Coaſt of Guiney, who was taken on the 29th ult. in Lat. 45. by the Cruizer Privateer of London, Capt. Sutherland, and laſt for England; has met with exceſſive bad Weather, loſt her Bowſprit, and otherwiſe greatly damaged. It blew a hard Gale of Wind at South Yeſterday, when ſhe anchor'd in this Bay, and being very leaky, her Crew, conſiſting of eight People, four French and four Engliſh, took to their Boat, and in coming aſhore the Boat overſet, by which Accident the four French Priſoners and two Engliſhmen were drowned; the other two Engliſhmen, with great Difficulty, got aſhore. Mr. Blewer, a Merchant of this Place, and four Cuſtom-houſe Officers, went off in two Boats, and with Difficulty got her into this Pier."

Extract of a Letter from Durham, October 12.

"The Pretender openly declares his Sorrow for embarking in the Enterprize, complaining that the French have deceived him, that his Friends in England have not been ready enough to declare for him; the Clans, with Tears in their Eyes, expreſs their Sorrow for having ruined themſelves and Families, and the Gentlemen cry out they are undone. Several of the private Men deſert, and in order to keep them together, they order out different Bodies of their Army to pillage the Country in the Night time, who return Hazzaing in the Morning, as if they were ſo many new Men coming to join them: I am only afraid they will diſperſe before the King's Army comes up to give them Battle. Several of the Highlanders being ſent from Leith to the North Coaſt to plunder and raiſe Contributions, ſold their Arms and deſerted."

We hear that the Government has purchaſed all the Gold and Silver, to the Value of near 1,200,000 l. which was taken by the Prince Frederick and Duke Privateers, and brought through the City in Forty five Waggons a few Days ſince, in order to have it coined with all Expedition; and the Proprietors of it have very generouſly refuſed Payment of the ſame, 'till the next Return of the Land-Tax.

Wedneſday the Right Hon. Richard Hoare, Eſq; Lord-Mayor Elect, was preſented to the Right Hon. the Lord Chancellor, at his Houſe in Great Ormond-[illegible] for his Approbation, when his Lordſhip approv'd of the City's Choice.

As the Health of Field Marſhal Wade, Commander of his Majeſty's Forces in the North, has been for ſome Years paſt very precarious, it is ſaid the Right Hon. Earl of Tyrawley will have the Command, in caſe his Excellency's Indiſpoſition ſhould at any Time, during the Campaign, oblige him to remain at any Diſtance from the Place where the Troops encamp.

His Majeſty's Ship the Southſea caſtle, Capt. Amhurſt, lately rebuilt at Liverpool, is ordered to be manned and victualled at that Place with all Expedition, for immediate Service.

There are ſeveral Letters from Briſtol which mention, that a Ship from Cork was arrived at Ilfordcomb; the Maſter of which reports, that a Spaniſh Man of War, of 70 Guns, full of Men, Arms, and Ammunition, was loſt, and all the Crew, except Five, drown'd.

Tueſday died of a Dropſy Sir William Billers, Knt. Alderman of Cordwainer-Ward, and Colonel of the Blue Regiment of this City.

On Monday laſt a Woman was found, with her Throat cut from Ear to Ear, at her Lodgings in St. James's Market. She had juſt before been delivered of a Child.

By Letters from Carliſle, it's poſitively ſaid, that Kelly, who eſcap'd out of the Tower, has been ſent by the Rebels to France, ſuppoſ'd to give an Account of their Situation; and that he is actually embarked.

" Dear Brother,

My laſt to you was by a Dutch Ship in ſight of this Road, ſince which Time we have had the Pleaſure of ſaluting Commodore Barnet in his Majeſty's Ship the Deptford, of 60 Guns, who came in here the 2d Inſtant with Laurels, at the Expence of the French, (who I hope by this Time are Creſt fallen) and brought in with him three large French China Ships, called the Dauphin, Neptune, and Hercules, which he took the 25th of February, in the Streights of Banca, and had in Company with him the Preſton, Lord Northesk, of 50 Guns, who at the beginning of the Engagement had his Tiller ſhot away, and otherwiſe diſabled, which obliged him to fall a ſtern, and could not come up again during the Action, which the Commodore maintain'd an Hour and half before they ſtruck; he had nine Men killed and about thirty wounded, amongſt the laſt, his chief Lieutenant and ſeveral petty Officers. The French behav'd like Men fighting for their all, but it would not avail againſt Engliſhmen reſolv'd to conquer or die.

Theſe are three of the fineſt Ships the French ever had in this Part of the World, and upon a modeſt Computation, were they in England, would be worth ſix Hundred Thouſand Pounds, but at this Market ſold for no more than (I'm aſhamed to ſay it) Seventy-two Thouſand, excluſive of the private Trade and Gold, which will amount to near Ten more. The Dutch laugh in their Sleeves, and call them their Prizes, and well they may, for the Ships alone, as they are fitted, without the Cargo, (which coſt upon the Supercargo's Invoice, in China, one Hundred and Eighty Thouſand Pounds) are very near worth the Money; but what could the Commodore do? his Orders were to diſpoſe of them at this Place, and that the Dutch knew, of which they made their Advantage.

The Commodore has great Expectations from the Medway and Dolphin, two of his Conſorts, in the Streights of Malacca, where they are waiting for two French Manilla Ships which are to paſs that Way; and this being the Place of Rendezvous, expect to ſee them with their Prizes every Day.

The Fame Privateer (late the St. Joſeph) Capt. Cummins, has been here theſe five Weeks refitting, in order to cruize on the French, but are greatly diſappointed by the Commodore's Succeſs; their Conſort, the Winchelſea, is likewiſe here, and made ſome Amends by bringing in a French Country Ship.

Since the above, have had the Satisfaction to ſee the Medway and Dolphin come in here, with two Prizes, one a French Man of War (called La Favourite) of 50 Guns, the other a little Manilla Man, almoſt worth her Weight in Silver, but without joking, they have already taken out of her Seventy-five Cheſts of Dollars, and one of Gold; beſides a very valuable Cargo of Cochineal, which they think upon the whole will be worth one Hundred and twenty Thouſand Pounds.

We have now been here near two Months, and only wait the breaking up of the Monſoons, when we ſhall proceed for Bengal, where we hope to be in May next, if the French don't play Tit for Tat with us, for we are told they have ſome fine Veſſels fitting out from their Sentlement of Ponticherry, to cruize in the Bay; but let them take care, and not fall into Mr. Barnet's Track, for he will allow of no Competition in theſe Seas. I am

Your moſt affectionate Brother,

HENRY REDDALL."

Laſt Week the Garriſon of Hull in Yorkſhire, received a Reinforcement of 100 Barrels of Gun-Powder, with Fire-Arms for 1000 Men, and 18 Pieces of Braſs Cannon; and, we hear, the Inhabitants to the Number of 2000, went voluntarily to work upon cleaning the Mores round the Fortifications.

We are well aſſured, that our Troops in Flanders will go into Winter Quarters next Week.

The Charming Molly Privateer, Capt. Craven, was loſt at Mount's-bay the 5th Inſtant, in a hard Gale of Wind.

The St. Andrew, M'Nelly, from Barbados for Cork and Briſtol, is taken and carried into Bayonne.

The ——, Thomas Jackſon, from Stockholm; and the ——, William Walker, from Koningsborg, both for Hull, were taken the 17th ult. on the Dogger's Bank, by Capt. Butell, in a French Privateer of Six Carriage Guns belonging to Boulogne; the firſt is carried into Dunkirk, and the other into Calais.

Laſt Week one of his Majeſty's Foot-Guards was detected in the Artillery-Ground, Moorfields, in putting a Bullet into a Musket belonging to one of the Soldiers there, and being carried before ſome of his Majeſty's Commiſſioners of the Lieutenancy in the Artillery Houſe, was by them committed to Newgate.

Laſt Saturday one Fletcher, an Iriſhman, who was the Officer of Horſe, taken on board the St. Zirioco, Don Joachin de la Sota, Commander, lately brought into Briſtol by the Trial Privateer, was brought to London, and after an Examination before the Duke of Newcaſtle, was by him committed to Newgate.

Dr. R. NELSON's long-experienced COMPOUND, or never-failing Anti-Venereal Electuary, the like of which is not to be met with,

FOR the true Cure of freſh Venereal Injuries, (and all the lurking Relicks or Remains of old ones) how virulent or obſtinate ſoever they may be; for it immediately puts a Stop to their Progreſs, and entirely, and as it were, inſtantly, ferrets out, and carries off all the filthy poiſonous Infection, wears away the various Symptoms, and by Degrees cleanſes off the Running, and heals and ſtrengthens the Parts, ſenſibly and firmly, without the too common Conſequences of leaving either Foulneſs, Gleeting, or Weakneſs behind. This it does in a Way ſo regular and gentle, both by Stool and Urine, and with a Doſe, each Time, ſo ſmall and pleaſant (the Quantity but of a Nutmeg) that the niceſt Perſons are well ſurprized as delighted with it, and the more, as it agrees with every one's Conſtitution, hinders no Buſineſs, nor gives the leaſt Suſpicion to the neareſt Relation.

In a very ſmall Space of Time (living temperately) it wears away a mild CLAP, and thoſe more ſevere, according to their ſeveral Degrees of Malignity.

There never was, nor can be in the whole Art of Phyſick contrived, any Medicine or Method capable of performing the Cure more certainly, more ſafely, or more ſpeedily, for it is ſo compleatly adapted to every Circumſtance of the Infection, and ſo fully anſwers the ſeveral Intentions of curing, that it is impoſſible it ſhould once fail.

But no more need to be ſaid of it, for it will recommend it ſelf, inſomuch that no Perſon will ever after ſeek for Cure himſelf, or adviſe his Friend to any other Remedy.

Price 5 s. the Tin-Pot. Prepar'd only by the Doctor, as aboveſaid and left (ſealed up with Directions) at Mr. Corbet's Bookſeller, at Addiſon's Head, oppoſite St. Dunſtan's Church, Fleet-ſtreet, and by Mr. Cook, under the Royal-Exchange; where it may be had by any Meſſenger, asking only for a 5 s. Pot of the COMPOUND.

This Day is publiſh'd,

(Price One Shilling.)

THE ALARM. A Poem. Addreſs'd to all Lovers of our Conſtitution in Church and State: Occaſioned by the preſent Rebellion in Scotland, and the approaching Invaſion.

Printed for M. Cooper, at the Globe in Pater-noſter-Row; and ſold by Mr. Dodſley in Pall-Mall, Mr. Stagg in Weſtminſter-Hall, Mr. Millan in the Strand, Mr. Brindley in New-Bond-ſtreet, Mr. Whitton and Mr. Hawkins in Fleet-ſtreet, Mr. Davis in Holborn, Mr. Oswald and Mr. Davidſon in the Poultry, and Mr. Whitridge under the Royal Exchange.

The moſt wonderful cleanſing and ſtrengthning Drops for all Sorts of Gleets, and Seminal Weakneſſes and Imbecilities of the Generative Parts and Faculties, preventing Miſcarriages in Women; and to cleanſe and ſtrengthen the Reins, Kidnies and Bladder, cure weak Backs, Strangeuries, Gravel, and Stoppage of the Urine, and for which it has gained ſuch Repute, that near 20000 Bottles have been ſold ſince April 1734, that they were firſt publiſh'd.

THESE incomparable Drops, which for the abovetaid Diſorders are not to be equall'd in the whole Art of Medicine, were preſcrib'd by the late Dr. Ratcliffe, for a certain noble Lord, who for a long Time had been vex'd with an old obſtinate Gleet and Weakneſs, of which he was cured by them in a few Days, beyond all Expectation, after he had been harraſs'd with Electuaries, Boluſſes, Pills, Potions, Injections, and a hundred other Medicines, for many Months together in vain.

The Apothecary who prepared them for him according to the Doctor's Preſcription (which he has ſtill upon his File) has made Uſe of them ever ſince to Numbers of People in the very worſt of Gleets, ſeminal and genital Imbecilities and Infertilities, Pains in the Back and Reins, Diſorders of the Urine and Gravel, &c. with the utmoſt Succeſs and Safety; as alſo in all Weakneſſes from Strains, as well as Venereal Relicts, exceſſive Coition, Self Pollution, ſeminal Emiſſions in Sleep, Falls, Blows, Wrenches, and the like, in both Sexes.

And as they have never once failed him, even in Caſes thought to be incurable, he now, for general Good, has made them publick: And that the meaner Sort of People might partake of the Benefit of ſo divine a Remedy as well as the Rich, he has put them up in Bottles of but 5 s 6 d each, tho' for the Excellency of their Effects they are worth their Weight in Gold, more eſpecially as one Bottle of them generally cures, even in the moſt draining Gleets, and grievous Relaxations and Weakneſſes of the Seminals and Genitals, as alſo of the Back and Reins, that are.

Nor can there be prepared, by any Art or Skill, a more cleanſing and healing, or a more ſtrengthening and invigorating Medicine, or one that can more effectually cure Impotency, or promote Fertility, than this, as every one that but once tries it will ſay, by their ſoon finding the Difference between this and other Remedies; for it will do more in one Day towards reſtoring in theſe Weakneſſes than any others can in ten, and is of ſo corroborating a Nature that it may be entirely rely'd upon for curing perfectly and firmly, without Fear of Relapſe, even in the tendereſt Conſtitutions, which can hardly be ſaid of any other Medicine; and it is withal ſo elegantly pleaſant to the Palate, and ſo agreeable to the Stomach, that the niceſt Perſon is delighted with it.

Mr. Weſt, Goldſmith, who us'd to ſell theſe Drops being dead, they are now Sold only by his Son in Law, Mr. Johnſon, a Baker, at the Seven Stars, in Vere-ſtreet, near Clare Market, ſealed up, with Directions, for any Meſſenger upon asking only for a Bottle of Drops, and paying 5 s. 6 d.

Concerning Gleets and Seminal Weakneſſes of all Kinds.

ALL judicious Phyſicians and Surgeons allow, that nothing is more difficult to cure than Stubborn Gleets and Seminal Weakneſſes whether occaſion'd by too ſevere purging for Venereal Injuries, ancient Strains, Pollutions, or any other Cauſe whatever; and that they are dangerous in their Conſequences, as well as difficult to cure, is as certain ſince they exceedingly weaken the Generative Faculties, infeeble the whole Nervous Syſtem, often bring on Hectick Heats, a Tabes Dorſalis, or Conſumption of the Back, or an Atrophy or Nervous Conſumptions which frequently terminate in Death itſelf.

All ſuch therefore who have the Misfortune to be troubled with Old ſtubborn Gleets, Seminal Effluxions, Involantary Emiſſions, exceſſive Nocturnal Pollutions, or any Weakneſs of the Kidnays, Ureters, or Bladder, the Diabetis, Incontinency of Urine, or Difficulty of holding their Water, would doubtleſs be glad to meet with a certain, ſafe and ſpeedy Cure, which they muſt aſſuredly may, by the taking only a ſmall Quantity of a tranſcendent Balſamick Reſtrictive Electuary, now publiſhed for a general Good, after having for many Years in private Practice been experienced never once to fail perfectly curing the moſt ſtubborn Gleets known, in a few Days, without Difficulty or Trouble; as alſo all other Weakneſſes of the Back, Reins, Seminal Veſſels and Urinary Paſſages, which it almoſt inſtantly cures, bringing to right and reſtoring all thoſe Parts and Paſſages to their natural Tone and priſtine Vigour, in a very extraordinary Manner, and by taking a few Doſes of it only.

This tranſcendent Balſamick Reſtrictive Electuary is neither diſagreeable to take, nor occaſions the leaſt Diſorder, but is a wonderful Reſtorative in all Weakneſs and Decay of Conſtitution of any Kind, and particularly ſtrengthens the Back, Reins, Seminal and Urinary Veſſels, to an immenſe Degree, inſomuch that in any Debility of them, one Doſe of it does more than ten of any other Remedy yet found out; and all Perſons fatigued with Gleets or Seminal Weakneſſes of any Sort, or Weakneſſes of the Urinary Veſſels, who take it, will in three Days time find it ſo very effectual, that they will be moſt agreeably ſurpriſed at it.

When a Medicine will infallibly accompliſh ſuch a ſafe, ſpeedy and perfect Cure of ſuch difficult Maladies, as Gleets and Seminal Weakneſſes are, as this Great Remedy truly and directly will, even after all other Means and Medicines have been try'd in vain; too much cannot be ſaid in Praiſe of it, and this all who ever took it for any of the abovemention'd Purpoſes, have readily declared.

The Price is but 6 s. a Pot, altho' for its abſolute Efficacy, one Pot alone being ſufficient in moſt Caſes to accompliſh a Cure, worth ten times as much, and by the Author's ſpecial Appointment, is to be had only at Mr. Radford's Toyſhop at the Roſe and Crown againſt St. Clement's Church Yard in the Strand, ready ſealed up, with a Book of Inſtructions, which whomſoever carefully reads will be compleat Maſter of his own Caſe, and perfectly know, when the Gleet or Weakneſs is aſſuredly with Succeſs a Venereal Injury, whether all the Malignity of the foul Diſeaſe is intirely extirpated or not.

Note, Ask only for a 6 s. Pot of Balſamick Electuary.

For the immediate Cure of BARRENNESS in WOMEN tho' of many Years Continuance, and proceeding from what Cause soever,

And also of IMPOTENCY in MEN, however occasion'd, or of ever so long Standing;

The Famous and Inestimable PROLIFICK ELIXIR.

The highest, rich'st, and most powerful Cordial in Nature, is recommended,

BEING the only true and Infallible Cure for Barrenness in Women and Impotency in Men in the Universe, and which at once accomplishes without the least Trouble, even after all other Remedies have fail'd, as Thousands have experienced, and that by promoting the Chemical Circle of the Blood and Juices; raising all the Fluids from their lan uid depressed State, to one more florid and sparkling; opening all Obstructions; fortifying the Nerves, encreasing the Animal Spirits, restoring a Juvenile Bloom, and evicerately replenishing the coispy Fibres of the whole habit, with a generous Warmth and balmy Moisture, and thereby invigorating it to such a Degree as not to be imagin'd, but by those who have experienced how exceedingly and suddenly it renovates, recruits and powerfully strengthens all the Animal Faculties and Generative Powers in both Sexes. It enforces a bright lively Disposition banishes Melancholy, and inspires Mirth and Gladness of Heart beyond Expression.

Abundance of Ladies who for several Years were deem'd incurable Barren, have after twice taking it, conceived and became Fruitful, and great Numbers of Gentlemen, who by ill living or otherwise, had render'd themselves incapable of Procreation, have soon been enabled both to propagate their Species, insomuch, that very many illustrious Families who, for want of Children, were almost inconsolable, are now blest with such happy Issues, and are to der Providence indebted to this Great Medicine for their Heirs.

It rectifies all Disorders of the Stomach, creates an Appetite, procures a good Digestion, and in all Weakness of Body, or Decay of Constitution of any Kind, is a most infallible Restorative, and even seems to keep back the Effects of Old Age it self.

The only short and infallible Cure for that reigning Disease the SCURVY and all Scorbutick Humours, tho' arrived to the highest or most inveterate Degree, or of ever so many Years standing, and that without any Possible Evacuation, or the least Purging, which, be an unaccountable Mistake, is Generally advised, altho' always found rather to encrease and confirm the Scurvy than cure it.

by the so much fam'd and most pleasant Chymical DROPS.

WHICH, without the least Trouble, Confinement, or any Disorder whatever, must once strike at the true Cause of the Scurvy and entirely destroy it, and all Scorbutick Humors and Effects, Root and Branch, so as never to return again, as many Thousands of both Sexes have experienced, and as all who take them in Three Days Time are convinced, for they almost instantly alter the morbid State of the Juices, purify the Blood, sweeten all the Fluids, cleanse them from Impurities, and gradually clear the whole Habit from all Spots, Botches, black and blue Marks, Itchings, foul Eruptions or Breakings out, Weakness of the Limbs, languid Heaviness of the whole Body, wandering Pains, Weakness of the Back, and all the vast Variety of Symptoms by which the Scurvy imitates and often lies conceal'd under the Appearance of the Rheumatism, and many other Distempers.

And for strengthening the Stomach, immediately creating a good Appetite, causing a regular and easy Digestion of Food, and curing all windy Effects and Disorders of the first Passages, (whence proceed Head-Achs, Vapours, and other Indispositions) no Bitters, nor any other Medicine upon Earth can compare with them, insomuch that besides infallibly curing the Scurvy, in all its Shapes and Appearance they assuredly and directly cure the Green-Sickness in Virgins, Worms of all Kinds, in Young or Old, and almost all other Chronick Diseases, which are chiefly occasioned by Indigestion and flatulent Crudities in the Stomach and Bowels) and certainly prevent Fevers, Agues, and other acute Diseases.

They are wonderfully Cordial and Restorative, strengthen and enliven the whole Machine, and as soon as taken, make the Patient pleasantly lightsome, brisk and vigorous to Admiration, and are good for all Sorts of Persons, to preserve as well as to procure a sound and healthful State of Body.

But the great Reputation these so much fam'd and most pleasant Chymical DROPS have so universally gain'd among Persons of Eminence, for their suddenly and infallibly curing the Scurvy and all Scorbutick Humours, and other Chronick Diseases, in such an easy and agreeable Manner, have occasioned many to imitate them, some under the same, and others under other Names; be careful therefore not to be deceived, but be sure to have the Right, which, by the Author's Special Appointment are to be had only at the Gentlewoman's at the two blue Posts in Haydon Yard in the Minories, at 3s. 6d a Bottle, with Directions.

ANTI-SIPHYLICON.

THE only short and most infallible CURE in the Universe for the Venereal Disease from the slightest Infection to the most extreme and deplorable Degree of it, even when the Blood and Juices are thoroughly contaminated with its malignant Virus, and the very Bones are affected with it.

Fresh Infections, call'd Claps, with all their attendant Symptoms, tho' ever so severe, are entirely carried off by it in a few Days, and so as effectually to prevent the Blood and Juices from being tainted with any remaining Relicks, on one Hand, or a seminal Gleet, or Weakness, to happen on the other.

And the most inveterate Degree of the French Illness, attended with nocturnal Pains, universal Breakings-out, and all other the most exasperated Symptoms, are soon overcome by it, and effectually and much more safely cured than by Salivation, Inungation, or any other Method whatever, and in so easy and pleasant a Manner, without impairing Strength, or occasioning any Inconvenience, as loudly to bespeak it the only apposite Remedy, or true Venereal Antidote in the World, and this some Thousands have, to their great Joy, experienced.

It is pleasant to take, occasions no Sickness or Disorder, nor requires Confinement, but may be taken, and the Cure be accomplished, without the Knowledge of the nearest Friend.

Those who suspect they have received an Injury may, by only a Dose or two of it, be perfectly freed from all Apprehensions; for it suffers no lurking Venom to lie hid in the Body, but wholly extirpates it, Root and Branch, in a gentle, easy, and most effectual Manner.

All such, likewise, as doubt they have some remaining Relicks of former Injuries, may, by a few Doses of it, entirely free themselves from all Suspicions of that Kind; for it admits of no Foulness, Corruption, or Putrefaction whatever, to remain in the Fluids, or to adhere to the Solids; and, on that Account, in all Scorbutick, Scrophulous, and even Leprous Eruptions, or Foulnesses of the Skin, or glandulous Swellings, and Impurities of the Juices, it does more by one Dose than any other Medicine, yet known, can by ten.

The Price of this most noble Anti-Siphylicon is but six Shillings a Pot, which, considering its extraordinary Efficacy, one Pot only being sufficient, in most Cases, to accomplish the Cure, is not a tenth Part of its Value; and is appointed by the Author to be had only at Mr. Radford's Toy-shop, at the Rose and Crown, against St. Clement's Church-yard, in the Strand, ready sealed up, with a Book of Instructions, by the Perusal of which all Persons who were ever affected with any Degree of the Venereal Disease may perfectly understand their own Condition, and certainly know when, and when not, the Venereal Poison is entirely rooted out of their Bodies. Note, Ask only for a Six Shilling Pot for the Scurvy.

The only True Specifick TINCTURE

For the TOOTH-ACH, and all Disorders and Defects of the TEETH and GUMS whatever, which has given such intire Satisfaction to the Nobility and Gentry for above these Twenty Years past, by its vastly excelling all other Things, either formerly invented or lately contrived for those Purposes;

SINCE one Drop of it gives infallible and instant Ease in the most tormenting Pain, when nothing else will, and not only takes it away in a Moment, but absolutely cures the TOOTH-ACH, so as certainly to prevent its Return.

At only once using, it makes the foulest Teeth most beautifully white, assuredly fastens those that are loose, and infallibly preserves the Teeth from growing rotten, and those a little decayed, from becoming worse: It perfectly cures the Scurvy in the Gums, causing them to grow up to the Teeth again to Admiration, and also occasions a sweet Breath.

It is neither disagreeable to the Smell or Taste, but effectually preserves the Teeth and Gums from all manner of Foulness, Corruption and Putrefaction, keeps them sound, good, and in most beautiful Order, and may be depended upon to answer the Character here given of it, literally, and in every Respect, as Persons innumerable have experienced.

But these inimitable Qualities, and solely inherent Virtues by which it has justly gained such an universal and unparallell'd great Character, have occasion'd, as usual in such Cases, various and frequent Endeavours to mimick it, some under the same Name, and in the very Words of this Advertisement, and others under other Names; be careful, therefore, to have the right, which may be infallibly relied upon, and which is to be had only by the Author's Appointment, of the Gentlewoman at the Two Blue Posts in Haydon-Yard in the Minories, London, at 3 s. 6 d. a Bottle, with Directions.

Good Allowance to those who take Quantities for Exportation.

The most Noble ELIXIR

For Hypochondriack Melancholy in Men, and the Hysterick Disease, or Vapors in Women,

IN three Days Time, demonstrates to every one who takes it, that it is absolutely infallible for the thorough Cure of those perplexing Indispositions, even in their highest and most grievous Degree, where nothing but Horror reigns, where Reasoning is interrupted or depraved, and where the Mind is confused with terrible Perturbations, Anxieties, and Despondency even to Distraction, and the Body afflicted with almost innumerable Ailments.

It's surprizing to see how soon this CELEBRATED ELIXIR (even a few Doses of it only) entirely cures all the vast Variety of Symptoms, and induces a new train of chearful and pleasant Ideas, instead of those deep and black thoughts, those direful Apprehensions that so tenaciously dwelt upon the Soul, clouded the Understanding, and destroyed all notion of ever receiving Comfort again; for it occasions a flow of undisturbed Spirits, and causes bright gleams of Joy to break in upon the Heart, and chase away the wholeload of depressed and melancholy Imaginations so effectually, that the Patients are suddenly reliev'd both in Body and Mind, and now enjoying perfect Health, free and lively Spirits steady, serene and gay Thoughts, stand as much amazed that they could be chain'd down to such a dismal way of Thinking, such dreadful Fears, and dark Incumbrances, as before, they were hopeless of ever getting free from them.

In a Word, the Effect of this most Noble Elixir, in so suddenly and infallibly curing Hypochondriack Melancholy in Men, and the Hysterick Disease, or Vapours in Women, in all their Shapes and Appearances, even after all other Remedies have proved fruitless, is inexpressible, as the vast Numbers of both Sexes who have been perfectly cured by it, with the utmost Satisfaction declare.

It occasions no manner of Disorder, is pleasant to take, a few Drops of it are a Dose, and is to be had only at Mr. Radford's Toyshop, at the Rose and Crown against St. Clement's Church Yard in the Strand, at 5 s. a Bottle, with Directions.

This Day is publish'd,

The Sixteenth Edition of

ONANIA: Or, The Heinous Sin of Self-Pollution, and all its frightful Consequences (in both Sexes) considered, with Spiritual and Phisical Advice to those who have already injured themselves by this abominable Practice.

As also the SIXTH EDITION of the SUPPLEMENT to it, both of them Revised and Enlarged, and now printed together in One Volume.

And as the several Passages in the former Impressions, that have been charged with being obscure and ambiguous, are in these cleared up and explained, there will be no more Alterations or Additions made to them.

These Editions contain some further and surprizing Instances of the Mischiefs by that filthy, sinful Commerce with ones self, which is so notoriously practised, as well by the Adult as Youth, Women as Men, Married as Single, to the weak'ning their Generative Faculties, and hindering Procreation, as their Letters of Complaint to the Author herein inserted, shew.

And, amongst others, a curious Letter from a Lady, with his Answer to it, concerning the Use and Abuse of the Marriage Bed; together with divers Casuistical and other Letters from both Sexes, of some secret unnatural Effeminacies, necessary to be known both by the married and single of each Sex. To which is added,

A Curious PIECE translated out of the Latin, from L. SCHMEDIER, as it is inserted in the Acta Lipsiensia; concerning the Return of the Seed into the Mass of Blood; well worth the Perusal of Physicians, Surgeons, Anatomists, and all others of Art and Curiosity.

As also Dr. QUINCY's Translation of Dr. CARR's remarkable Answer to a Letter sent by a Divine, concerning two Nuns in Rome, reported to have changed their Sex.

Likewise Dr. DRAKE's and several other Physicians Opinions of Hermaphrodites, and Women brought to a Resemblance of them, by the Practice of Self-Pollution, as was the Case of a young Lady of 18, whose well-wrote Letter to the Author, describing and lamenting her Condition, is (in order to deter others) inserted.

A very grave and learned Divine and Physician having perused this Discourse, before it went to the Press, returned it with his Opinion of it in these Words.

'This little Book ought to be read by all Sorts of People, 'of both Sexes, of what Age, Degree, Profession, or Condition 'soever, guilty or not guilty of the Sin declaimed against in it.'

Is now sold (Mr ISTED, Bookseller, at the Golden Ball, in Fleetstreet being dead) by CHARLES CORBETT, Bookseller, at Addison's Head, opposite St. Dunstan's Church, Fleetstreet, and by HENRY COOK under the Royal Exchange. Price Bound 3 s. 6 d.
